And this our life, exempt from public haunt, Finds tongues in trees, books in the running brooks,
Sermons in stones, and good in everything.
SHAKESPEARE

Make for yourself a treasure chest,
[illegible] not [illegible]ems and gold - [illegible]ll it with [illegible]s more rare and fine,
As full as it will hold.

Into it place your kindly thoughts,
Of friends whom you hold
dear,
The classes, the teachers, the happy hours,
That fill your life with cheer.

[illegible]d then [illegible] days come along,
And your bright prospects
mar,
Open your treasure chest and see How very rich you are!

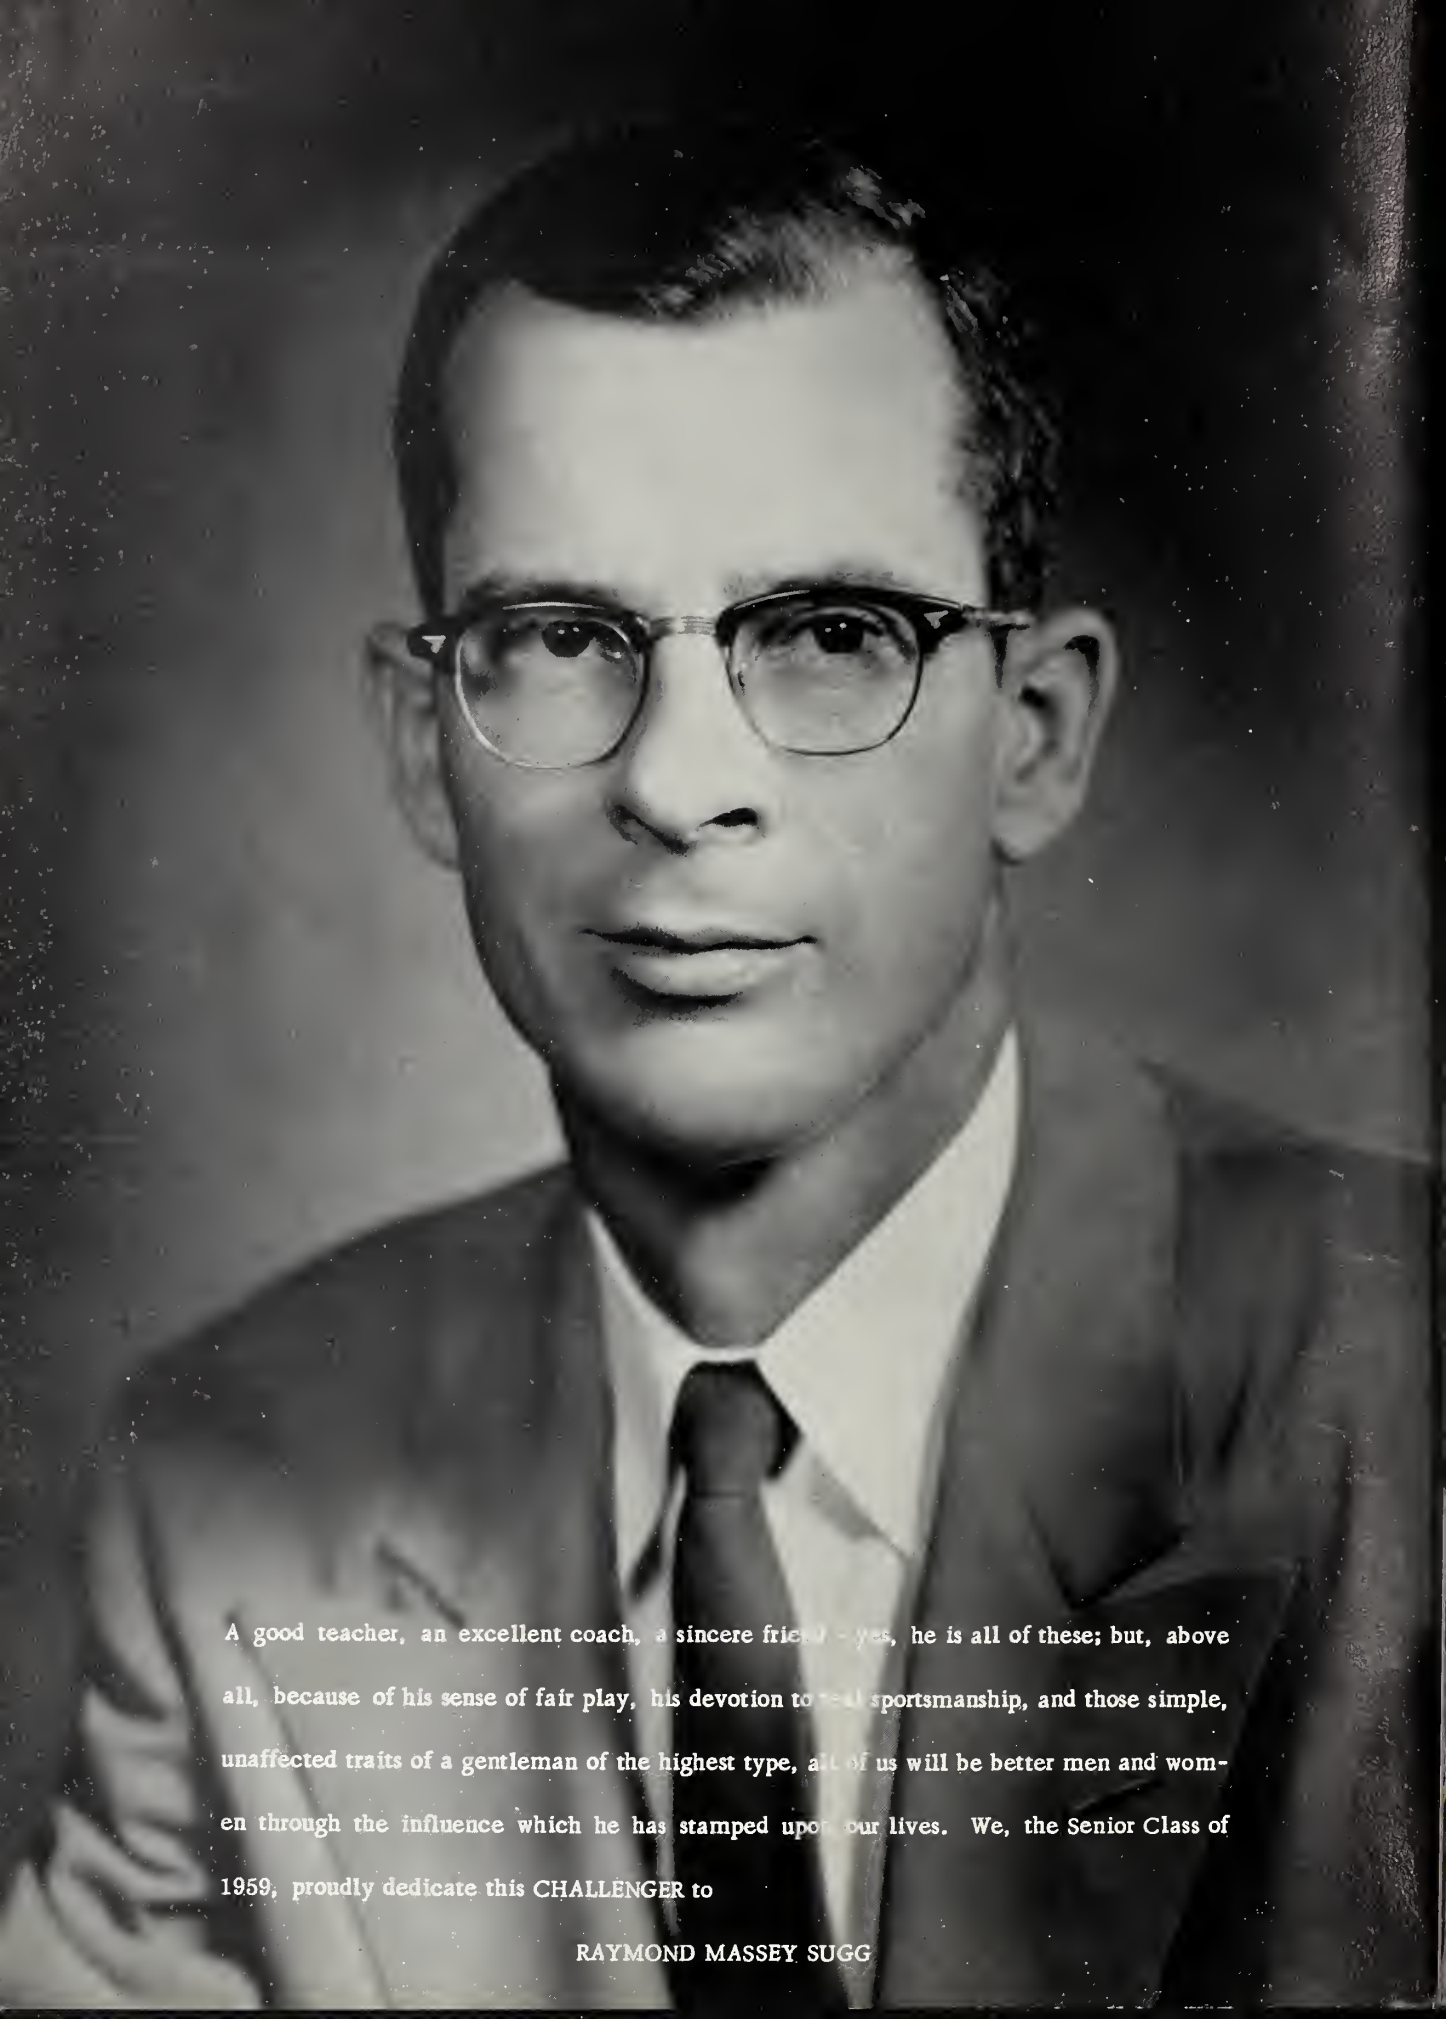
Princeton, North Carolina



A good teacher, an excellent coach, a sincere friend - yes, he is all of these; but, above all, because of his sense of fair play, his devotion to real sportsmanship, and those simple, unaffected traits of a gentleman of the highest type, all of us will be better men and women through the influence which he has stamped upon our lives. We, the Senior Class of 1959, proudly dedicate this CHALLENGER to

The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth, as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd — It blesseth him that gives, and him that takes.

To be, or not to be: that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune,
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles,
And by opposing end them.
